THE FIRST M. E. CHURCH
of Tampa, Fla.

The First M. E. Church was organized July 26, 1846 by J. C. Ley, a pioneer circuit rider, and was the first church organized in the community of Ft. Brooke (shortly afterwards changed to Tampa) on Tampa Bay.

The original 17 members held services in the Palmer House (the towns leading hotel), private residences and the Court House before the one story building with a belfry was completed in 1853 and known as "The Little White Church"

A revival broke out June 6, 1885 under the leadership of Rev. T.J. Nixon and as a result the membership was greatly increased.

The year 1889 was a memorable one in Tampa and in the church. The first bridge across the Hillsborough River was being constructed at Lafayette St. to replace the ferry at Jackson St.; the Tampa Bay Hotel was being built and new people were coming to Tampa. The little church was inadequate.

Early in 1890 at the invitation of Rev. J.C. Sale, pastor of the First Church, Rev. John B. Culpepper conducted a revival for the church. A tent was erected on the W.B. Henderson property on Florida Ave. between Twiggs and Zack Street where the Post Office now stands. The increased membership from the revival made it necessary to find more room.

A lot was bought on Florida Ave., in the heart of Tampa and the present church was started in 1890 at a cost of $16,350.00. It was completed in 1891 and dedicated in 1892 when the balance of the indebtedness was paid.

The First M.E. Church

The Sunday School Annex was erected in 1902 and was the first Sunday School Building to be built in the Methodist Conference in Florida. It is known as the "Linebaugh Annex".

A new parsonage was built in 1941 and dedicated May 5, 1942.

Ground was broken by Mayor Curtis H. Hixon and others on Mar. 14, 1948 for a building to be called "The Peace Memorial and Education Building". The cost will be approximately $130,000.00.

Rev. G.E. Pelot came to the First Church in 1887. A severe epidemic of yellow fever broke out but Rev. Pelot stuck to his post. He contracted the fever and in 1889. On his memorial window at First Church are these words:-

A soldier of Christ
He died at his post.

The belfry from "The Little White Church" which was situated on the corner of Morgan and Lafayette Street, Tampa, Fla. is now on the First Methodist Church in Clearwater, Florida.

Many of the early records of the First Methodist Church have been lost.
